WHITE HOUSE THREATENS TO KEEP CONGRESS IN SESSION

(Mr. DELAY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DELAY. Madam Speaker, the White House has threatened to keep the Congress in session until it brings up legislation to reform the current campaign laws. Well, that is fine with me. It will give both the House and Senate more time to examine in detail every campaign law that this administration broke during the last election.

There are laws on the books against soliciting campaign funds from Federal property. There are laws on the books that prohibit campaign contributions from foreign services, especially the Communist Chinese. There are laws on the books that prohibit campaign events from occurring at Buddhist temples. These are just some of the abuses that we have already found in the Clinton-Gore reelection campaign.

The President can keep us in session as long as he wants. It will give us much more time to examine in detail the emerging Clinton-Gore campaign scandal.

RALPH ELLISON'S "INVISIBLE MAN"

(Mr. SAWYER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SAWYER. Madam Speaker, today is the 40th anniversary of Little Rock, AR. It is also the 45th anniversary year of the publication of a novel that changed America, Ralph Ellison's "Invisible Man."

The central conceit in that compelling piece of literature was the invisibility of African-Americans in American society. It began, "I am an invisible man. I am invisible, understand, simply because people refuse to see me."

Five years later, Central High School was on every television in America and millions of Americans were invisible no more. Today, it is a deep irony that if we fail to conduct the most complete census we are capable of, we will make millions of Americans of a color disappear from the public rolls of the Nation.

At the same time, in Orange County, in an attempt to change the outcome of an election, a former Member of this House is trying to manufacture people of color to suggest a fraud, manufacture people of color out of thin air.

JENNIFER DAVIS IMPRISONED IN PERU

(Mr. EWING asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. EWING. Madam Speaker, September 25, 1996, 1 year ago, Jennifer Davis was in Peru. She was arrested on drug charges. She has admitted her guilt and has cooperated with authorities. For this, she has been put in an inhumane prison, has never received her rights under Peruvian law. While she has been there for 1 year, a Russian arrested is in and out in 6 months; a policeman that she put the finger on is in and out in 6 months.

This Peruvian Government has refused to consider the sense-of-Congress resolutions passed in both Houses to extend our human rights to this young lady and 24 other Americans. It is time to do something about it.

ACT NOW ON CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM

(Mr. DOGGETT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)
